Live Oak Acquisition Corp. II (NYSE: LOKB) and Navitas Semiconductor, the Industry Leader in Gallium Nitride (GaN) Power ICs, Announce New York Investor Day in Connection with their Proposed Business Combination

In-person meeting allows detailed technology, business and markets discussion plus hands-on demonstrations of GaN Power IC technology.

DUBLIN, IRELAND and Memphis, TN.– June 30, 2021— Navitas Semiconductor (“the Company” or “Navitas”), the industry leader in GaN Power ICs, and Live Oak Acquisition Corp. II (NYSE: LOKB) (“Live Oak II” or “LOKB”), today announced an in-person, buy-side investor day at NASDAQ headquarters in New York on July 26th, demonstrating continued progress on Navitas’ plan to become publicly-traded, as previously announced.

Gallium nitride (GaN) is a next-generation semiconductor technology that runs up to 20x faster than legacy silicon chips. Navitas’ proprietary GaN power ICs integrate GaN power (FET) and GaN drive plus control and protection in a single SMT package. These GaNFast power ICs become easy-to-use, high-speed, high-performance ‘digital-in, power-out’ building blocks and deliver up to 3x faster charging in half the size and weight, and with up to 40% energy savings compared with legacy silicon chips.

Navitas predicts GaN power ICs can address markets estimated to grow to over $13B in 2026. Navitas estimates that GaN can impact up to 2.6 Gtons of CO₂ reduction annually by 2050. Navitas has already shipped over 20M GaNFast power ICs to tier-1 companies including Dell, Lenovo, Xiaomi, LG, OPPO and more, with over 135 customer designs in mass production and over 150 more in development.

In-person attendees will experience GaNFast charging in real time, with hands-on live demonstrations, and discover how GaN power ICs can revolutionize power conversion in mobile, consumer, data center, EV and solar markets.

Navitas’ senior management team, including Gene Sheridan (co-founder and CEO), Dan Kinzer (co-founder & COO/CTO), Todd Glickman (Sr VP Finance), David Carroll (Sr VP Worldwide Sales) and Stephen Oliver (VP Corporate Marketing & Investor Relations) will be in New York to discuss technology, markets and financial details.

The Live Oak II team in New York will include Rick Hendrix (CEO), Gary Wunderlich (President), and Adam Fishman (COO).

Investor Day:

Location: NASDAQ, 4 Times Square (One Five One building), New York

Date/time: Monday July 26th, from 11:00 am (in-person) with lunch and live demonstrations.

Formal presentation and Q&A from 11:30 am – 12:30 pm (live-streamed).

Registration: Please contact ir@navitassemi.com

For more information about the business combination, please visit the Navitas IR page and SEC filings. A video recording of the Analyst Day presentation (San Francisco, June 22nd) is available.

About Navitas Semiconductor

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Statements

The information in this press release includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements, other than statements of present or historical fact included in this press release, regarding the proposed transaction, the ability of the parties to consummate the transaction, the benefits of the transaction and the combined company's future financial performance, as well as the combined company's strategy, future operations, estimated financial position, estimated revenues and losses, projections of market opportunity and market share, projected costs, prospects, plans and objectives of management are forward-looking statements. When used in this press release, the words "could," "should," "will," "may," "believe," "anticipate," "intend," "estimate," "plan," "seek," "expect," "project," "forecast," the negative of such terms and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain such identifying words.

Live Oak II and Navitas caution you that the forward-looking statements contained in this press release are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including the possibility that the expected growth of Navitas' business will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period, due to, among other things: (i) Navitas' goals and strategies, future business development, financial condition and results of operations; (ii) Navitas' customer relationships and ability to retain and expand these customer relationships; (iii) Navitas' ability to accurately predict future revenues for the purpose of appropriately budgeting and adjusting Navitas' expenses; (iv) Navitas' ability to diversify its customer base and develop relationships in new markets; (v) the level of demand in Navitas' customers' end markets; (vi) Navitas' ability to attract, train and retain key qualified personnel; (vii) changes in trade policies, including the imposition of tariffs; (viii) the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on Navitas' business, results of operations and financial condition; (ix) the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the global economy; (x) the ability of Navitas to maintain compliance with certain U.S. Government contracting requirements; (xi) regulatory developments in the United States and foreign countries; and (xii) Navitas' ability to protect its intellectual property rights. Forward-looking statements are also subject to additional risks and uncertainties, including (i) changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political and legal conditions; (ii) the inability of the parties to successfully or timely consummate the proposed transaction, including the risk that any required regulatory approvals are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to unanticipated conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the proposed transaction or that the approval of the stockholders of Live Oak II is not obtained; (iii) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Live Oak II or Navitas following announcement of the proposed transaction; (iv) the risk that the proposed transaction disrupts Live Oak II's or Navitas' current plans and operations as a result of the announcement of the proposed transaction; (v) costs related to the proposed transaction; (vi) failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction; (vii) risks relating to the uncertainty of the projected financial information with respect to Navitas; (viii) risks related to the rollout of Navitas' business and the timing of expected business milestones; (ix) the effects of competition on Navitas' business; (x) the amount of redemption requests made by Live Oak II's public stockholders; (xi) the ability of Live Oak II or the combined company to issue equity or equity-linked securities in connection with the proposed transaction or in the future; and (xii) those factors discussed in Live Oak II's registration statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-256880) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on June 8, 2021 (the "Registration Statement") and Live Oak II's final prospectus filed with the SEC on December 4, 2020 under the heading "Risk Factors" and other documents of Live Oak II filed, or to be filed, with the SEC.

If any of the risks described above materialize or our assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by our forward-looking statements. There may be additional risks that neither Live Oak II nor Navitas presently know or that Live Oak II and Navitas currently believe are immaterial that could also cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect Live Oak II's and Navitas' expectations, plans or forecasts of future events and views as of the date of this press release. Live Oak II and Navitas anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause Live Oak II's and Navitas' assessments to change. However, while Live Oak II and Navitas may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, Live Oak II and Navitas specifically disclaim any obligation to do so. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing Live Oak II's and Navitas' assessments as of any date subsequent to the date of this press release. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed upon the forward-looking statements.
